A large mumber of invited guests were present, among whom we noticed Rev. J. G. Armstroug, Mayor Sweeney, Hon. Thayer Melvin, M. Reilly, Eaq. H. K. List, Eaq. Architect Pairfax, Lewis Baker, Eaq., and Col. H. H. Blackburn, of Martinsburg.

Secretary of State Hedrick, by request of Gov. Jacob, read the prodamation declaring the votes cast in the State for the electors at the election in November last, and announced that Messra, W. H. Travers, Nicholas IFizhugh, A. Poyser, Daniel B. Jacus and John Hauson Good, having received a majority of the votes, were duly elected, in pursuance of the laws of the United States, and the State of West Virginia. Individual certificates setting forth a similar statement were then furnished to the electors, who were then separately sworn by Judge Melvin, of the Ohio county Circuit Court. The oath was in substance that they should apphold the Constitution of she United States, and the State of West Virginia, and faithfully discharge the duties of electors to the best of their sevent skills and abilities.

The electors then organized by calling Mr. Travers to the chair, and making Mr. Lucas Secretary. The diffice of the electors was stated by the chairman, after which a ballot was taken for President, and R. G. Barr. The Committee having retired to consult, shortly reappeared, and through the Chairman reported the following resolutions, which were unanillowing resolut ously adopted.

IN MEMORIAN. IN MEMORIAM.

We, the members of the bar and officers of the courts of Ohio county, feeling deeply shocked by the unlooked for death of our friend and companion, C. W. B. Allison, do adopt this testimonial of our regard for our deceased brother, and of our sympathy for his family in their sad bereavement.

reavement.
Death brings always a solemn warning, but it is when the good, and useful, and noble, are taken, that we feel the loss most keenly. To the world that life is dear which is spent in faithful labor at any honest employment; but dearer still is the life spent in labors directly affecting the interests of the many, and spent with power in aid of truth—in aid of right sgainst the wrong. It is the loss of auch a life we mourn. such a life we mourn.

Colonel Allison came to our bar with aripe experience and a high reputation as a lawyer, and was soon recognized by his brethren as a man worthy of the es-teem in which he was elsewhere held. teem in which he was elsewhere held. He was faithful to his clients and fair to the court, and to his opponents. His life and example did much to elevate and sustain, and nothing to lower the dignity of the profession. He had a just conception of public and private duties, and with a full measure of devotion did well his part. He was pure and honest in speech and action. He was a kind friend, speech and action. He was a kind friend, and to no one an enemy.

From the qualities of head and heart so commendably shown in his professional and social relations, we are enabled in some degree to appreciate the great loss to his family of one so kind and exemplary, and in that loss we tender them our sincer expmathy. sincere sympathy.

Resolved, That as a mark of our respec-newspapers of the city of wheeling, and Resolved, Farther, that the Secretary of this meeting communicate a copy to the family of the deceased.

Hon. R. H. Cochran moved that a committee of light be appointed to act as pall bearers, and the Chair appoint the same, which was adopted. Thereupon the Chair appointed the following: Hon. Daniel Lamb, Daniel Peck, Esq., Hon. G. L. Cranmer, Hon. R. H. Cochran, A. B. Caldwell, Esq., Wm. Erskin, Esq., H. Forbes, Esq., and R. G. Barr. Mr. Peck having declined to act, he nominated Hon. Thayer Melvin to fill his place, which motion having been put by the Secretary, he was declared elected.

On motion of Hon. Daniel Lamb, Messrs A. J. Clark, T. J. Hugus and J. E. McKennan were appointed a committee to carry out the arrangements for the funeral.
